From Warhammer 40k - Lexicanum Games PortalWarhammer 40,000 Space Marines PortalDark Angels Codex: Dark Angels is an expansion book for the Adeptus Astartes army in the 7th Edition of Warhammer 40,000. Cover Description Never forget, never forgive! The Dark Angels make war with stoic, merciless determination. Marching ever forward, disregarding the attacks of their foes, they gun down their enemies with grim efficiency, never once displaying any sign of weakness or pride. Wrapping themselves tightly in the archaic rituals of battle, they seem almost desperate to distance themselves from those they seek to protect - indeed, lurking behind their courage and heroism is a secret stain upon their honour that, if revealed, would destroy everything they have struggled to bring to bear. Contents The tragic history of the Dark Angels, and the details of their ten-thousand year search for absolution. Comprehensive organisation and uniform information, covering the Deathwing, Ravenwing and Lion's Blade Strike Forces; Three new Dark Angels detachments, six formations and Tactical Objectives, plus Warlord Traits and Chapter Relics; Opportunities to build your own Deathwing and Ravenwing formations from the extensive range of available miniatures. The secret of the Fallen is what defines the Dark Angels and the army rules reflect that truth.The Dark Angels have traditionally have been three different types of armies in one, with most folks playing armies with very little unit variation. The current 7th edition iteration attempts to unify them through various Formations and Detachments. The three pillars of Dark Angel armies are the Ravenwing, Deathwing, and Battle Companies. Games Workshop's strategy to force players into playing a variety of Dark Angel units is centered on making the most iconic Dark Angel army unplayable: the Deathwing.Deathwing Terminators were the beating heart of the Dark Angels, now they are merely an accessory you add to your army. Don't be discouraged though even without the Deathwing, Dark Angels are one of the top tier armies of 7th editon. Dark Angels get the amazing Space Marine Battle Company rules with a few twists and the Ravenwing ability to re-roll Jink saves make them very formidable. Thanks to products like Dark Vengeance Dark Angels are very easy to buy and field. Throw in a few Black Knight units, some transports, and anyone can have a competitive Dark Angel force. If you look below the surface you will also find some amazing units like Azeral, who is often used to force multiply allied Imperium units. The Dark Shroud is an example of one terrible unit made great with the current codex. As a starter army for competitive play you can't really do any better than starting with the Dark Angels especially on a budget.Below you find all the quick reference material you need to build an competitive or fluffy Dark Angels army. All units in this Formation automatically arrive by Deep Strike at the start of the chosen turn. If this Formation includes a Venerable Dreadnought embarked in a Drop Pod, the Drop Pod automatically arrives at the start of the chosen turn, and ignores the normal rules that determine when a Drop Pod arrives.Take the Fight to the Enemy: Units from this Formation can either shoot and then Run, or Run and then shoot, in the Shooting phase of the turn they arrive by Deep Strike.Source: Codex: Dark Angels Ravenwing Attack Squadron FormationRequirements: 1 Ravenwing Bike Squad or 1 Ravenwing Attack Bike Squad, 1 Ravenwing Land Speeders or 1 Ravenwing Land Speeder Vengeance Unit Restrictions: The unit of Ravenwing Land Speeders may only include one model.Special Rules: Scout.Attack Squadron: If the Ravenwing Land Speeder or Ravenwing Land Speeder Vengeance from this Formation scores one or more hits upon an enemy unit in the Shooting phase, then all models in this Formation's Ravenwing Bike Squad or Ravenwing Attack Bike Squad add 1 to their Ballistic Skill characteristic when shooting at the same target for the rest of the phase.Summon the Deathwing: Friendly units composed entirely of models with the Deathwing special rule do not scatter when they Deep Strike, so long as the first model is placed within 12? of a model from this Formation.
